EMPOWERING THE INTANGIBLE

1st -4th September 2016 The 8th Art of Management & Organization Conference

Dear All

This conference programme is entirely provisional and whilst we hope to keep changes to a minimum, the nature of academic conferences and in particular AoMO, given its creative complexity, means changes to rooms and running orders are to be expected.

Please take this opportunity to check that your paper, workshop, exhibition or performance has been included in the programme and has been provided with a sufficient amount of time. Any queries or changes need to be sent to aomo2016@gmail.com immediately.

For those facilitating workshops who have not completed a Resource Requirement Form – please note your workshop will not be provided with anything other than an overhead projector and screen. Please send all outstanding Resource Requirement Forms asap.

Please also note that if you have not registered and paid to attend the conference by the 25th August 2016 your paper will be removed from the conference programme, book of abstracts and conference proceedings. All presenters, performers, stream convenors have to register and pay to attend. Once again, please email me on aomo2016@gmail.com if you are having difficulties with providing payment, if you want to check the status of your registration or to discuss anything else.

Note on Travel: In conjunction with the IEDC we will be providing a shuttle bus service from Ljubljana airport to your hotel/accommodation on Lake Bled. The airport is very small and so you should easily see the AoMO logo being held by the shuttle bus driver. This service is not included in your registration fee but we have negotiated a competitive rate and this will be the quickest, cheapest and easiest means of getting to Bled. A similar return service will be provided.

I hope you are all looking forward to catching up and meeting new friends in the stunning surroundings of Lake Bled in just a few weeks!

Jenna
