

A Song Writing Session

with

Mike Reinstein

'Words make you think a thought. Music makes you feel a feeling. A song makes you feel a thought. Together they stand ready to soothe not only the savage breast, but the stubborn mind...a new idea can find a soft spot - even under a hard hat.'

Yip Harburg, lyricist of, among many other songs, Somewhere Over The Rainbow.

Come along and find the Yip in you!
Explore the art and craft of song writing and then have a go at writing something of your own.

You don't have to be a musician to attend the session but if you do play a portable instrument you're very welcome to bring it.

Mike is a long established singer and songwriter on the Sussex acoustic scene with three critically acclaimed albums on the Irregular Records label. Read more about him on his website:
