

A is for AoMO Anniversary

(Tribute to punk-poet John Cooper-Clarke by Jolanta Jagiello)

Assembling academics, artists, accountants, actors, architects, anthropologists, and archaeologists,
and also
assistants, apprentices, and amazing administrators, arranging
auditorium atmospheres, amp-theatre acoustics and articulating
accompanying audiences.

An Anniversary

appreciating
apostles, adventurers, abolitionists, anti-colonists and activists, announcing
acrylics, abstraction, assemblage, algorithms, arguments, and autobiographies, anticipating
alcohol absorption,
and
anarchic amusements altogether, advocating
affectionate approachability,

appealing affiliations,
accelerating
apoplectic accidents
and
adolescent addictions
analysing
afterthoughts,
affirmations,
abbreviations
applying asymmetric,
argumentations,
arbitrations
agreeing
accomplished activism,
acknowledged authorship,
and
actualised authenticity,
advertising
AoMO
admirable achievements, alumni attendee ambassadors
and
ancestors.
